DESTINATION · NORTH AMERICA

USA

Many Americas. One journey that is yours.

The USA offers very different holiday worlds: city neighbourhoods, coastal stays, desert settings and mountain lodges. Selecting a small number of complementary bases helps create a route with a clear purpose.

Tell us whether food, design, open landscapes or time together is the reason for travelling. Your property choices can then shape the daily experience rather than become interchangeable nights along a long route.

A collection shaped around you

Cities, coast and the freedom to explore. Compare twenty distinctive stays on the pages that follow.

Canada

Wide horizons, with welcoming places to stay.

Canada can combine a Vancouver introduction, a mountain lodge and the gentler character of Vancouver Island or a different eastern chapter. The best route balances impressive scenery with time at comfortable bases.

A lodge with outdoor access, a city room or a garden retreat each suits a different rhythm. Discuss the distance between stops and how much driving or rail travel you want before choosing the final sequence.
